4th International Conference on Functional Integrated nano Systems 28 - 30 April 2020 in Graz

We are pleased to invite you to the 4th International Conference on Functional Integrated nano Systems from 28th to 30th April 2020 in Graz. The organizing committee has once again successfully invited top-class scientists to the Styrian capital:

Max Shulaker, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (USA)
Ulrike Diebold, TU Wien (Austria)
Jun Chen, University of California (USA)
Charl F.J. Faul, University of Bristol (United Kingdom)
Elvira Fortunato, Universidade NOVA de Lisboa (Portugal)
Tobias Kraus, INM Leibniz Institute for New Materials (Germany)
Johan Liu, Chalmers University of Technology (Sweden)
Stephan Steinhauer, KTH Royal Institute of Technology (Sweden)
Andreas Waag, TU Braunschweig (Germany)
Wei-Yen Woon, National Central University (Taiwan)

nanoFIS 2020 will highlight latest R&D results in the following Topics:

- Advanced Functional Materials
- Nanodevices & Nanosystems
- Nanoanalytics, Modelling & Reliability
- System Integration Technologies and Manufacturing Processes
